*To earn three hours credit in a course, it is necessary to take additional work in the afternoon. A rule of the California State Board of Education limits the number of credits to an average of not to exceed one credit for each week's attendance; that is, six credits in a six weeks' term. yx means Monday, Wednesday, Friday, the first three weeks and Tuesday, Thursday, the second three weeks. xy means the converse of yx.

Instead of earning a third unit by afternoon lessons it may be earned by remaining for a week's work at the close of Term I in any one of the following courses: General Psychology, Educational Measurements, History of Education in the U. S., Genetic Psychology. Thus in seven weeks one may earn seven units.

- Geology, Astronomy and General Psychology can not be taken for less than three units.

- Two afternoons per week in visiting social agencies.
